RECORD-BREAKING HEAT WAVE TO CONTINUE

SENATE OPENS PACT DEBATE; FOES ARE FEW

Europe Arms Money Will Meet Some Opposition, Taft Indicates

WASHINGTON, July 5—(AP)—The senate today opens debate on the North Atlantic pact with apparently less than a dozen members opposing the 12-nation mutual defense treaty.

Senators Connally (D-Tex.) and Vandenberg (R-Mich.) led the forces seeking the two-third vote needed for ratification.

Senator Taft (R-Ohio), however, told a reporter he expects to discuss the related European arms program when he speaks later this week in favor of the pact. Taft is against the proposed $1,450,000 arms outlay.

The senate alone acts on the pact. Both houses must pass on the arms proposal.

Program Under Fire

The arms program already is under fire from economy advocates. Senator Byrd (D-Va.) says he is going to oppose it because he doesn't believe this country can afford to put that amount of money into military supplies on top of the economic aid it is giving Europe.

Senator Watkins (R-Utah) has charged that instead of the $1,450,000 earmarked for the 12-treaty signers in the over-all arms program the first year cost will be much greater.

The remainder of the $1,450,000 in proposed military aid would be earmarked for Greece, Turkey and other areas.

Senator George (D-Ga.), chairman of the senate finance committee, said that if the cost of the arms program were added to the $1,611,000,000 deficit the treasury incurred in the year ending June 30, the two would represent an increase of about $3,000,000,000 in the national debt.

Other developments on Capitol Hill:

Economic—Senator Sparkman (D-Ala.) said that President Truman ought to renounce his anti-inflation program and chart plans instead for "safeguarding us against a skidding economy."

Sees Action Needed

"I think we now are definitely out of the inflation period and have arrived at a point where we should be thinking about plans to prevent deflation," Sparkman told a reporter.

Communists—The house un-American activities committee is hunting the successor—or successors—to Gerhart Eislser, the man it once called the number one Communist agent in the United States.

Atomic—The Atomic Energy commission, charged by Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) with "incredible mismanagement," said it plans to send at least half a dozen top scientists and industrialists before the senate-house atomic energy committee to recite the nation's atomic advances in the 30 months since the program came under civilian control.

Unification—Secretary of Defense, Johnson returns to Capitol Hill tomorrow for continued hearings on his request for power to stop family fights among the armed forces.

Un-American Hunters Seek Successor To Eisler As No. 1 Red

By DOUGLAS B. CORNELL
WASHINGTON, July 5—(AP)—The house un-American activities committee is trying to find out who succeeded Gerhart Eisler, the man it once called the number one Communist agent in the United States.

"We probably will have to wait until we locate someone who knows and who is willing to sing," one committee member said today. "So far, we don't know."

"But we have reason to believe there now is a second successor to Eisler, that the first one has fled to Czechoslovakia."

Eisler himself skipped the country in May and now is in his native Germany—in the Russian zone. At the time he left, Eisler was out on bail after having been sentenced on charges of passport fraud and contempt of congress.

Exposed Eisler

It was the un-American activities committee that exposed Eisler as a key figure in the Communist movement in this country. It cited him for contempt when he refused to take an oath to tell the truth without reading first a statement attacking the committee.

Naturally, the committee would like to expose the person who has taken over Eisler's role.

His best bet now, as in the past, is to find a turncoat Communist who has soured on the party and is ready to talk.

But the committee thinks the job of locating active Communists may become more difficult. It has been told party membership cards have not been issued for this year.

One reason, committee members say, is that the Communists still fear congress might pass an exposure law requiring them to register. Such a bill got through the house last year but not the senate.

Another possible reason, members think, is that the party may be getting ready to go underground if its leaders are convicted of conspiring to upset the American government.

Settled Later

Gil Green of Chicago and Gus Hall of Cleveland, two of 11 party leaders now on trial in New York, were seized later than the others. The committee thinks they were busy completing plans to move the party underground, except for some expendables who might be left in the open in an attempt to cover up the shift.

In the national capital, committee authorities say, perhaps a third of the Communists already have joined the underground. They say the party membership here has dropped that much in recent months.

They say Paul Crouch, who spent 17 years in the party, has told them of plans for the membership to split up into groups of about five persons, each with a leader. Only through this leader would there be any contacts stretching up eventually to the top officials.

Crouch is a mechanical department employee of The Miami Daily News who testified during the committee's investigations of atomic espionage.

WOMAN TELLS OF KILLINGS

Raped Woman Flees Mountain Cottage After Violent Episode

SONOMA, Calif., July 5—(AP)—A nearly nude woman ran down a mountain road and incoherently sobbed out a story of rape and violent death in a mountain home in Jack London's idyllic Valley of the Moon.

A picnic party she reached in her wild flight yesterday called officers, who found two men dead inside her home. They began a search for a mystery man she knew only as Hank.

The two dead men evidently had been clubbed with a four-pound stone pestle once used by Indians to grind grain.

Chief Criminal Investigator Andy Johansen identified the victims as Peter J. Jensen, 55, owner of the house and chief landscape gardener of the Sonoma State home; and Peter J. Flint, 31, newly-commissioned merchant marine lieutenant of Richmond, Calif.

Flint was reported a longtime friend of Jensen.

Officers are seeking a mystery man identified to them only as "Hank."

In a serious condition was Mrs. Eva Paget of Berkeley, Calif., 27-year-old mother of two children. It was her story of being beaten and raped which led officers to the slayings.

Sheriff's deputies said she told this story:

She was vacationing with her children at Londonside near Jensen's home. Sunday night, she met Flint, whom she had known eight or nine years, and he introduced her to a man she was to know only as "Hank."

"Hank" came to her yesterday, told her Flint had broken his arm, and asked she go with him to the Jensen cabin.

On the front steps, the man struck her over the head. Declaring, "you know what I want," he dragged her into the back yard and raped her. Then he tied her to a tree with a belt, a towel and a pair of trousers.

Afterwards, he entered the house, changed his bloodstained clothes and left.

Finally freeing herself, she entered the house, she found blood dripped all along the floor and the two bodies beneath sheets in beds in different rooms. She ran for help.

In the back yard they found the stone pestle, and evidences corroborating Mrs. Paget's story of being tied to the tree.

Zanesville Man Comes Out of 45-Day "Grave"

ZANESVILLE, July 5—(AP)—Raymond "Demp" Emmert, of Zanesville, walked around among the living today—proud of being called "the buried alive champion."

The 40-year-old unemployed World War II veteran emerged from a deluxe "grave" yesterday. He had been underground just 40 minutes short of 45 days.

"I feel fine," he said. Then he sat down until he could get some strength in his legs.

A few minutes later, Emmert took out for a bathtub and a razor—"to get this itchy beard" off.

The old mark, set in 1938, belonging to another Zanesville resident, L. G. McIntyre, who did his horizontal hibernation in Chicago.

Emmert was buried six feet under in a wooden casket, with a shaft leading from his face to the surface. Down the shaft came his food and wine.

U. N. URGING EAST WEST RESUME TRADE

See Possible World Slump If Precautions Aren't Taken Very Soon

By The Associated Press

In Geneva today the United Nations urged a resumption of east-west trade to head off a world economic recession.

The annual economic survey was prepared by the U. N. secretariat for the economic and social council, opening a six-weeks session here today. It said economic activity is leveling off after the post war industrial boom. It said positive action is necessary "to counter possible recession."

Church-state strife continued in Czechoslovakia. In a weekend religious observance, Minister of Health Josef Plojhar, a suspended priest, said: "We implore the priests to take their places alongside the people. But if they do not, they will reap the reward of people serving foreign interests. Let them get out of here."

Charges Collaboration

The commissioner of education for Slovakia, Prof. Laco Novomesky, charged that Roman Catholic bishops collaborated with the Nazis during the occupation. He made this charge despite the fact that the Roman Catholic primate, Archbishop Josef Beran, was a Nazi prisoner in Dachau concentration camp.

In Communist-held Shanghai, military observers said Nationalist planes bombing this port are based on secret bases in the Chusan Islands, 100 miles off Shanghai.

Hawaii's waterfront troubles spread to the pineapple packing and fish canning industry today. The strike of 2,000 stevedores has held up shipments of tinplate needed by the manufacturers.

Britain still was plagued with a dockworkers strike and a mounting economic crisis.

British government leaders conferred privately with French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman on Britain's economic crisis. Later this week U. S. Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder will talk with British Economic Chief Sir Stafford Cripps.

Await Search In Home of Recluse

PHILADELPHIA, July 5—(AP)—Authorities today awaited a court order permitting an intensified search of a home where they said a woman recluse lived like a beggar despite the fortune at her command.

A preliminary survey of the cluttered building showed the woman was worth at least $200,000. But she chose to live on a semi-starvation diet of bread and milk.

The woman, Mrs. Catherine S. Ritter, 79, was found dead Sunday on her trash-blanketed bed. The house was crammed with rubbish and litter.

Police said they suspected that somewhere in the maze would be found a clue to the whereabouts of possibly $100,000 Mrs. Ritter is believed to have hidden.

Police said rents collected from tenants of some 14 houses she owned were brought to her regularly. Neighbors told the investigators they knew virtually nothing of the woman except that she used a tiny vestibule as an "office" from which she conducted her outside contacts.

The investigation of Mrs. Ritter's death was started by neighbors who complained of "odors" emitting from the house.

U. S. Has Record Death Toll Over Holiday Weekend

By The Associated Press

A record accidental death toll for the Fourth of July marked the nation's observance of this year's extended Independence day holiday.

Latest figures showed 663 killed in violent accidents.

The grim report on the country's celebration of the three-day holiday was: Traffic fatalities 289; drownings 240; violent deaths from miscellaneous causes 134. The country-wide survey covered violent deaths from 6 p. m.

Will Ask Ohio's Aid On Check Of Low Income Group

WASHINGTON, July 5—(AP)—Rep. Huber (D-Ohio) said today he will ask his state's Welfare department and other agencies to aid a congressional study of low-income families and their needs, launched by a joint house and senate committee.

Huber is a member of the joint committee. It was created to find out what, if anything, ails the nation's economy—why, the committee puts it, that economy acts sick when nothing seems to be seriously wrong with it.

The Ohio lawmaker was named to a special subcommittee appointed to check on low-income groups. Among its jobs is to get answers to these questions:

Why do some persons stay in the low-income bracket all or most of their lives? What keeps them there, earning $2,000 a year or less? What happens to those whose "ship comes in" and bring them better days? Do they go on and prosper, do they save money when they have a chance to save, do they tend to slip back to their old wage standards? And "why" for all these questions and many others.

"Ohio has a big stake in anything that might stave off a depression," Huber told a reporter. "We are a populous state, and we suffered in the last big depression."

"So I plan to ask Judge J. H. Lamneck, our state welfare director, what information he can supply, and to check with the others back home about this."

"Death Dodger" Burned

CLEVELAND, July 5—(AP)—Sam Johnson, 29, performs for Jimmy Lynch's Death Dodgers by driving a motorcycle through a "wall of fire" at 50 miles an hour. Last night, during the Festival of Freedom at the stadium, his motorcycle conked momentarily as he approached the flames and he had to go through at 15 miles an hour.

Johnson, of Youngstown, was treated at a hospital for minor burns and then allowed to return to the stadium.

Att'y. Cole Honored

LISBON, July 5—Att'y Howard Cole, commander of the local V.F.W. post, has been elected judge advocate of the Ohio department. He was elected to the office at the business session of the state V.F.W. convention held over the weekend in Cleveland.

local time Friday to midnight Monday.

The 1949 toll was the highest ever recorded for any Fourth of July. The previous record of accidental deaths on the Independence day holiday was 628 in the three-day period in 1941. This year's marked compared with 571 deaths reported over a three-day period in 1948.

Weather Brings Them Out

Sweltering weather across the nation brought an outpouring of millions onto the highways headed for vacation lands and resorts. The traffic toll, as generally expected, was the leader, with 284 fatalities on the highways. The National Safety council had estimated 290 persons would lose their lives in traffic mishaps over the holiday.

The hot and humid weather sent millions to lakes and rivers to cool off and drownings over the three-day period was a record-breaking 240. The previous high was 192 last year.

Michigan's hundreds of lakes lured thousands and 25 persons drowned in the state. Twenty-one drowned in New York.

The survey showed no fatalities from fireworks.

The death toll was the heaviest in Texas 47 killed in violent accidents. New York's 45 fatalities ranked second and Michigan's toll was 42.

No violent deaths were reported in Kansas, Nevada or the District of Columbia. Only one traffic fatality was reported in Cook county (Chicago) Illinois, which was believed a record.

Two Accidents Occur In City; No One Hurt

A car driven by Mrs. Mildred H. McDonald of Parma was struck by a truck operated by H. Charles Zeiler of R. D. 4, Salem, on E. Pershing st. at 3 p. m. Saturday.

Mrs. McDonald was driving east through a one-way traffic zone, when the Zeiler truck came out of a parking lot on the north side of the street and hit the left side of the car.

Both fenders and doors on the left side of the car were caved in, police said.

An auto and a taxi were both damaged in a collision on N. Ellsworth ave at 9:50 p. m. Monday.

The car, owned by Dr. Karl Ulicny of 956 Homewood ave., was parked in front of 614 N. Ellsworth and was sideswiped by a taxi driven by Stewart E. Sipe of 610 E. Fourth st.

The collision tore the left front fender, caved in the left rear fender and damaged the door of the Ulicny car. The left rear fender was smashed and the rear bumper was torn loose on the taxi.

Salemites Swelter Fourth Straight Day; No Relief Due

The mercury headed for the stratosphere again today in Salem and apparently there is no relief in sight for the sweltering city.

The Fourth of July weekend was the hottest on record. L. H. Copeland, district weather observer, reported the hottest July 4 temperature in 57 years at his Millport station when a sizzling 97 degrees was registered Monday.

Copeland said there have been higher marks in July, but this was tops for Independence day.

Accidents In District Few Over Holiday

Scotty McLeay, One-Time Salem Golf Pro, Is Drowning Victim

Although traffic accidents, drownings and other mishaps took a heavy toll in life and limb over the holiday weekend, this district apparently drew a rain check.

One of the Ohio drowning victims was Donald (Scotty) McLeay, one of the best-known professional golfers of the Mahoning valley, who lost his life Saturday at Pleasant Valley lake, near Girard, while swimming.

He was at the Salem Golf club at one time and was well-known in golf circles throughout the state.

Mahoning County Coroner David Belinky returned a verdict of accidental death after McLeay was taken to Youngstown South Side hospital, where he was pronounced dead.

McLeay was the Mahoning Country club's first professional and had shot a 41 for nine holes Friday afternoon while playing the course with friends.

Only one traffic accident of any consequence was reported by the Salem State highway patrol for the entire three-day period. No one was injured.

Norval Coffman, 31, of Columbiana, lost control of his truck on Route 344, near the intersection of Route 45, at 8 p. m. Saturday. The vehicle failed to negotiate the curve, left the highway and rolled over.

The truck was nearly demolished.

The patrol also reported the following arrests:

George Bender, 40, of R. D. 1, Rogers, was fined $5 and costs for operating an unsafe vehicle and $20 and costs by Mayor K. T. Gormley of Columbiana for driving without a driver's license.

Glenn Lutz, 19, of New Castle forfeited a $10 bond to Mayor Brooks Reed of Poland after being arrested for passing over the yellow line at an intersection.

TOWNSEND CLUBS ORGANIZE PARTY

COLUMBUS, July 5—(AP)—Members of the nation's Townsend clubs established a new political party yesterday.

Delegates, dissatisfied with both Democrats and Republicans, adopted the idea unanimously.

The idea was presented to the ninth national convention of Townsend clubs by the 82-year-old founder of the pension movement, Dr. Francis E. Townsend.

Since 1933, Townsendsites have been trying to get congress to adopt their plan. They believe in payment of a pension of about $156 a month to every person, 60 years or older, who would apply for it.

The pensions would be financed by a three per cent gross income tax on all business and on all wages in excess of $250 a month. Recipients would have to spend their pensions each month in order to continue to be eligible.

The Townsend movement claims 5,000,000 members. It holds their plan would be insurance against another depression.

The convention resolution said congress did not seem competent to determine the cause or cure of depressions.

National legislation proposing to put the Townsend plan into effect is now pending in the house ways and means committee.

The record temperature recorded at the Salem disposal plant Monday was 92, between 2 and 3 p. m. The mercury dipped from 70 Sunday midnight to a minimum of 61 yesterday and then started its climb. It was 88 by noon.

Salemites had difficulty gaining any comfort last night and many were forced out of upstairs bedrooms into the cooler parts of their homes. Some spent the night on porches.

Looking ahead at a five-day extended forecast for Ohio, one sees little help. Temperatures will average three to six degrees above a normal of 82 maximum and 61 degrees minimum, according to weather experts. A near normal Wednesday and Thursday is predicted, warming Friday and Saturday, cooler Sunday.

Light showers late Friday or Saturday are forecast.

In Ohio

The holiday found extremely high temperatures penetrating every section of the state—with the mercury ranging from 98 at Cleveland to an unofficial 102 at Springfield.

It was 97 at Cincinnati—where 10 persons collapsed from the heat and humidity in less than 24 hours—and 96 degrees in Columbus.

Efforts of Ohioans to "beat the heat" were reflected in a high death toll by drownings. From midnight Friday to midnight Monday 13 Ohioans lost their lives while on swimming or fishing excursions.

LEETONIA

The village council is considering the installation of parking meters in the downtown business district.

Three years ago Council discussed the possibility of installing parking meters but was met with considerable opposition because surrounding towns did not have them. Business would be driven elsewhere. Since that time Columbiana, Salem and Lisbon have installed meters.

William Buhl, district representative of the Magee-Hale Park-O-Meter Co. was present at the recent council meeting and explained the workings of a modern, automatic combination coin parking meter. Council has not reached a decision.

Rev. Kenneth E. Birney, who has served the Methodist church for the past four years, has been returned to the Leetonia pastorate for the fifth year. Rev. Birney also serves the Washingtonville Methodist church.

The Leetonia High School band will hold its weekly rehearsal this evening. Director W. Gwynne Jenkins announces that two open air concerts will be presented, the dates to be announced later.

Dr. and Mrs. James Degnan of Minneapolis have been the guests of Dr. Degnan's sister, Mrs. H. R. Mellinger and family.

Paul W. Atkinson, graduate student at Ohio State university spent the holiday weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Atkinson.

WINONA

Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday with Mrs. Frank Fultz, Salem-Winona rd.

A picnic dinner will be enjoyed at noon, followed in the afternoon by a business meeting and program.

The W. C. T. U. held a meeting Thursday afternoon at the Methodist church honoring mothers and their children. The church was decorated with vases of summer flowers. The meeting was in charge of the president, Mrs. Sina Megrail. Mrs. Sherman Brantingham presented the devotions using texts from the Bible in regard to home and children.

David Ford played several violin selections which were well received by the audience. Mrs. J. C. Pottorf gave an inspirational talk on Homes and the far reaching effect they have in the world. Misses Mary Arbanitis and Mary Althouse sang "My Mother's Prayers Follow Me." Rev. Lydia Brantingham conducted the impressive white ribbon recruit service; there were six children and their mothers who took part in this.

The mothers were presented a corsage of flowers. The remainder of the time was spent in the church dining room socially, and with a lunch served at a circular table with a white covering and beautiful decorations of sweet peas, and green and yellow streamers extending from a centerpiece.

Others assisting Mrs. Megrail in serving were Rev. Lydia Brantingham, Mrs. Earl Ruble. Mrs. Donald Mayhew, Miss Josephine Dunn and Mrs. Carl Creighton. Sunday dinner guests of Mrs.

Sina Megrail were Mr. and Mrs. John Hanna and Kathryn, Evelyn and David of Damascus.

There will be an all day sewing for the American Friends Service committee at the Primary school house Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Allen of Salem were Friday dinner guests in the Mrs. Sina Megrail home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Guindon and Dale LaVern of Columbiana R. D. were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Sidwell.

O. F. Sidwell, who has been ill, is slowly improving.

James Taylor, who was seriously ill at the Salem City hospital, is making a satisfactory recovery.

As Boudreau Goes, So Go The Indians--It's Proven Again

YANKS MAINTAIN SAFE MARGIN ON FIELD OVER 4TH

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Fourth of July has come and gone with the New York Yankees and Brooklyn Dodgers still showing the way in the major league pennant races.

Tradition says the night of the Fourth is the telltale date. If you lead then, you can start building new stands for the World Series. Actually it's right only about 50 per cent of the time.

Despite the roaring surge of the Philadelphia A's and the menacing moves by the Cleveland Indians, the Yanks can feel fairly safe with a 4½ game lead over the A's.

The Yankees' Vic Raschi went all the way against Boston to win the opener, 3-2, for his 13th victory of the season at the expense of Walt Masterson. In the second Joe DiMaggio's homer pulled the Yanks up into a tie in the fifth and Billy Johnson's single with the bases loaded in the seventh provided the winning 6-4 margin for Reliever Willard Marshall over Mel Parnell.

The Athletics kept pace by trimming Washington 9-7 and 8-0 with Little Bobby Shantz, Mack's 5 foot 7 inch southpaw, pitching a 10-hit shutout in the second.

Cleveland, moving strong, solidified its third place position, seven games behind New York, by beating Detroit twice, 3-2 and 7-3.

Homers by Dick Kokos and Gerry Priddy gave the St. Louis Browns a 4-2 victory and an even break with the Chicago White Sox who rapped the Browns' staff for 15 hits, including two doubles by George Metkovich in the 12-5 first game.

Branch Rickey collected twice at Brooklyn as the Dodgers won a morning and afternoon game from Philadelphia, boosting their lead over St. Louis to two full games.

Preacher Roe just missed a shutout in the 7-1 morning game when Willie Jones homered with two out in the ninth. Don Newcombe needed help from Jack Banta in the eighth inning to save an 8-4 decision in the second.

Max Lanier's return from "exile" in Mexico and Canada was not a success but the Cardinals rallied after Max was knocked out in the third inning to take Chicago, 9-4. Fred Martin, like Lanier another re-instated Mexican "jumper," was the official winner.

Bob Chipman stopped the Red Birds in the second game with an efficient shutout, 5-0.

For a change, Billy Meyer got some pitching from his Pittsburgh staff and the Pirates copped two from Cincinnati, 2-1 and 1-0 to move ahead of the Reds into sixth place.

The Boston Braves moved into a third place tie with the Phillies, 5½ games behind the Dodgers, by splitting two with the New York Giants. The Giants banged out 17 hits in the 11-4 first game, and the Braves won the nightcap 8-7.

Rufer's Team Laces Salem Merchants 13-5

Rufer's baseball team defeated the Salem Junior Merchants 13-5 in a game played Friday afternoon at Teegarden field.

The Junior Merchants were held scoreless until the final inning by Pitchers Brown and Brudley of Rufers.

Bloor and Mallory were the hurlers for Salem. Rufers scored one in the first, on in the third, seven in the sixth and four in the seventh frame.

MANAGER WHO WAS BENCHING SELF HITS 13 IN 26

Has Brought Average Up 36 Points In 7 Games; Tribe Wins 4 Games

DETROIT, July 5—(AP)—Whatever happened to Lou Boudreau's plan to bench himself?

Less than a week ago, the Indians' manager was watching the game from the dugout with a sickly .232 batting average. Then Kenny Keltner hurt his leg and Lou had to play third base.

Looking at his record today for those last seven games: Boudreau has hit .500—13 hits in 26 times at bat—and has inflated his batting average 36 points to .268.

The Tribe manager gave further evidence yesterday that as he goes so, too, go the Indians. He had two hits for three in both games, and Cleveland won them both, 3 to 2 and 7 to 3.

And it was his triple that drove Hal Newhouser from the box in that second game, the same Newhouser who tamed the Indians three times this year.

The Detroit star appeared to be ready to mark down number four over his favorite team until the eighth inning.

In that one, with one out, Larry Doby lined a double to left. Then Joe Gordon hit one to left, and Hoot Evers made a running catch for out number two.

Then came Boudreau's triple off the screen in left center, scoring Doby from second and tying the score at 3-3.

In the ninth, Dale Mitchell tripled off Freddie Hutchinson to score Sam Zoldak from first, Fay Boone singled Mitchell home and Larry Doby hit his 12th homer of the season for two more runs.

Gene Bearden started the second game and allowed Detroit two runs in the third inning. Sam Zoldak was the winning pitcher, Hutchinson the loser.

Bob Feller won that first one, and Mitchell was the big offensive power then, too.

Art Houtteman was working on a 2-0 margin until the eighth inning. Then Mitchell's triple to the stands in left center scored Pinchhitters Thurman Tucker and Hal Peck.

Feller was credited with his fifth victory against six defeats and his fourth win in a row. And for the third time in two days, Satchel Paige did a relief job.

It was a pretty good one, too: He retired six men in order in the eighth and ninth innings.

In the averages, third place Cleveland didn't move a point nearer the New York Yankees, who won a doubleheader from Boston.

Tonight, the Tribe winds up the three-game series with the Tigers. Frank Papish is likely to pitch for Cleveland with Marvin Grissom the Detroit hurler.

ALTHOUSE LOSES 3 OVER HOLIDAY

The holiday weekend was a disastrous one for the Althouse Dodge Lake Placencia team, for it dropped three games in a single Sunday and twin-bill Monday slate.

The Canton Hoovers defeated Althouse 6-1 Sunday and Althouse dropped a pair, 7-4 and 11-5, on Monday to the Canton road furniture.

BOUDREAU NAMES HIS ALL-STARS; ADDS TRIBE MEN

CHICAGO, July 5—(UP)—The youngest team in all star history will take the field for the American league in the 16th annual inter-league battle in Brooklyn's Ebbetts field July 12, the roster of the 25 man squad showed today.

Thirteen of the competitors for the junior league will be making their debut in the All Star classic and three of them, Second Baseman Cass Michaels of Chicago, First Baseman Eddie Robinson of Washington and Shortstop Eddie Joost of Philadelphia, will be in the starting lineup.

There was a good chance that the starting pitcher for the team, which Lou Boudreau of Cleveland will manage, also will be a rookie so far as the all star game is concerned. Five of the seven hurlers Boudreau named for the squad—Lou Brissie and Alex Kellner of Philadelphia, Mel Parnell of Boston, Allie Reynolds of New York and Virgil Trucks of Detroit—will make their first appearance in the game.

The complete American league squad:

Pitchers: Brissie, Kellner, Parnell, Reynolds, Trucks, Bob Lemon, Cleveland, and Vic Raschi, New York.

Catchers: Yogi Berra, New York, Jim Hegon, Cleveland, and Birdie Tebbetts, Boston.

Infielders: Michaels, Robinson, Joost, Bob Dillinger, St. Louis, Bill Goodman and Vern Stephens, Boston, Joe Gordon, Cleveland, and George Kell, Detroit.

Outfielders: Dom Di Maggio and Ted Williams, Boston, Joe Di Maggio and Tom Henrich, New York, Larry Doby and Dale Mitchell, Cleveland, and Vic Wertz, Detroit.

Boudreau, who will direct the team because his Cleveland squad won the pennant last year, named an all Cleveland lineup for coaches, trainer, and batting practice

One Game Scheduled In Softball Today

Only one game is scheduled in Class A softball today.

Joe Kelley said this morning that the Saxons are to play the Jaycees at 6:30 p. m. at West End park, a postponed contest from the earlier part of the season.

No Class B games are booked tonight.

pitchers and catcher. Coaches picked were Bill McKechnie and Muddy Ruel, trainer Lefty Weisman, batting Practice Catcher George Suche, and Pitchers Mel Harder and Sam Zoldak.

Exclusive of the pitcher, the eight starters were named in a vote of the fans. Other than the three new infielders, stars will be Kell at third base, Henrich, Williams and D. Di Maggio in the outfield, and Tebbetts at Catcher.

Boudreau adhered generally to the vote of the fans in picking the remainder of the squad, except for his choice of Joe DiMaggio, DiMaggio, out of the Yankees' first 65 games because of an injured heel, returned to the lineup last week and has sparked the team since.

Boudreau said he "wanted him on the team I'm to manage."

The starting lineup must play the first three innings of the game and pitchers will be limited to three innings.

The American league club will be the visiting team and each player will wear his road uniform with his club number.

The game is scheduled to start at 12:30 p. m., EST, July 12 and if postponed will start at 11 a. m. July 13.

Joe Di Maggio is the veteran of the lineup with 10 previous appearances. Gordon has been in eight contests, Boudreau in seven, Williams six, Stephens four, and Henrich and Tebbetts three.

Beattie, Jones Take Weekend Golf Events; Pedersen Wins Title

Don Beattie and Dr. J. S. Jones of Lisbon copped the honors in the Class A and B flag tournaments, respectively, at the Salem Golf club over the torrid weekend as the finals were approached in the June handicap tourney, which is just ending.

Norm Pedersen, Jr., became the first champion of the month-long June handicap event, winning the third flight title with a two-up victory over Wentz Alsbaugh in the flight finals.

The other final matches were set up in the June handicap as Al Moser waxed red-hot to fire a 35-37-72, his best round ever, to defeat always difficult Walt Hartsock, who shot a 75 only to lose five and four.

Moser is now paired in the top flight-finals with Gene Sommers, whose consistent game bested Eddie Kennedy one-up in a semi-final affair.

In the finals of the second flight are Adam Rudibaugh of Lisbon, playing a great game this year, and Joe Greenwood. Rudibaugh defeated Merv Thomas one up and Greenwood "out-did" R. C. Blair to earn his way into the finals. Those matches will be played off this week.

In the flag tourney Monday, Beattie's 38-43-81 won as he holed out on No. 19 green, just four inches better than Dick Lawrence, who won second in the A flight, and five inches better than E. R. Martin, who also made the No. 19 green.

The balance of the top flight winners included: Ed Fukalski, two feet from No. 19 hole; F. E. Cope, 12 feet, eight inches from the No. 19 hole; Dick Green, 18 feet from the cup; Rudy Schuster, 24 feet from the cup and Dick Dennis 25 feet from the cup.

The B flight winner, Dr. J. S. Jones of Lisbon, wound up 10 inches from No. 19 cup. Behind him were: Wentz Alsbaugh, 22 yards from the cup; W. B. Blount, a 220 yard drive on No. 19; T. E. Smith, who holed out on No. 18; Ray Snyder, a foot from No. 18 cup; Harvey Walken, two feet from No. 18 cup and Jimmie Kelley, 12 feet from the 18th hole.

WEEK END NOTES . . . Moser's beautiful 72 Saturday afternoon is a feat any golfer could well be proud of . . . Al took his card home with him for framing . . . He doubts, however, if he will give up golf . . . a statement he has often made about shooting an 18-hole even par.

Pro Andy Mocsary, not to be out-shone by the duffers over the hot weekend, fired another 68 Saturday . . . This time he carded 34-34 to do the difficult chore . . . He scored birdies on three and nine both rounds and one sub-par on seven . . . He also managed one bogie, going one over par on No. 4 the first round.

Jimmie Wingard failed to win a prize in the holiday shooting.

The Nation Today

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON—(AP)—The reciprocal Trade Agreements act has died—at least for a while—because congress failed to get around to renewing it.
 This act is a cornerstone in our foreign policy. It was first passed in 1934 under the guidance of President Roosevelt and Secretary of State Hull to build up better trade with other countries. It has been renewed repeatedly since then by congress, the last time in 1948 when it was made clear the act would die June 30, 1949, unless congress acted to continue it.

MONTHS AGO President Truman told congress the deadline was approaching and the act

AN INVESTMENT INCOME PROPERTY
 The large brick apartment building known as the old Dr. Heck home on E. State is now for sale. In the front is a store bldg. 30x30 in addition to the 3 4-room modern apartment bldg. in the rear. It also has a frontage of 97 feet on E. State Street and is 200 feet deep making it a valuable business property. The lot alone in this location is valued at $9,000. This property is now renting to 1st class tenants and showing a 13 1/2% income on your investment. One must see this property to know just what it is and to fully realize its many possibilities.
 I also have a fine, close-in 12-room concrete block, strictly modern double home priced at 1-3 replacement cost. Entirely separate and ideal for 2 congenial families.

HERE IS SOMETHING DIFFERENT!
 64.66 acres located three miles north of Salem on Goshen road. Two extra good houses. One house of seven rooms with slate roof, strictly modern, very nicely planned and sets back the right distance off the road with abundance of nice shade. Grand front porch. The other house is also a good house under slate roof, six rooms with furnace, electricity and pitcher pump in kitchen. Good barn with stanchions, silo and other necessary out-buildings. This farm has very good bottom land pasture with running water through it. This is one of the best producing farms I have ever offered. Excellent neighborhood. Children hauled to school. Price $18,000.00.
 Having two houses on this farm makes it ideal for your father and mother or if you have a married son or daughter that you want near you. If you wanted to work somewhere else, your father could farm the farm for this farm properly farmed would provide an income large enough for both families.
 We can offer you the six room house with a large garden spot and abundance of nice shade with two-car garage at a price of only $6,000.00.

wine from France. France wants machinery from us. We lower our tariffs on French wine coming in here. The French lower their tariffs on machinery going into France.
 We may not want French silk. The French may not want our roller-skates. So we don't lower our tariffs on their silk. They don't lower their tariffs on our roller skates.
 This is the crudest kind of explanation, for the whole problem is very complicated, as can be seen from what the experts of the 34 countries in France are trying to do:
 To cut down country-by-country deals and end discrimination among countries, they're trying to make agreements by which any country that lowers its tariff on certain products of another country will give all of the other 32 countries the same tariff rates on those certain products. (That doesn't mean all products.)
 WHEN THE TRADE act was first passed in 1934 our tariffs on foreign goods coming in here to compete with American goods were very high. This was to protect American producers.
 So the act allowed the President, but only after a long study by government experts and public hearings where anyone who thought he might be hurt could complain.
 Some congressmen, particularly Republicans, haven't been too fond of the trade act. They've argued the tariff cuts have hurt some American businesses.
 Before letting the act be continued, they'll fight for what they say is more protection for American business. They'll do that by trying to put more restrictions on the President's ability to cut.

FHA Home Rating Sheet Gives Realistic Look At Dream House

Prospective home-owners who wish to use FHA services would be wise to consider a number of points about the home before seeking FHA approval. Some of these points are listed below:

1.—Structural soundness is of the first importance in rating a piece of property according to FHA. That means you should know the strength of the soil under the foundations, make sure the frame walls are secured tightly to the masonry and check the construction interior items such as partitions, ceilings and floors. In some sections of the country house design should even take into consideration the prevalence of earthquakes and severe storms. Before a house can be approved for an FHA mortgage it must really be as well built as it appears to be. Sound construction is a vital consideration when a loan is to run for thirty years.

2.—Resistance to elements. . . how well will the house withstand the never-ending siege of sun and rain? Will it resist fire and decay, as well as attack by corrosion and insects? Answers to these queries involve a study of roof pitch, exterior and interior finishes and protection against such pests as termites and borers. It is a good idea to have the property inspected by a reliable termite control organization that will give a factual report on the extent of termite activity without cost or obligation.

3.—Resistance to use involves the question of whether or not there is a danger of the sub-floors warping or of having the ceiling crack if you decide to move furniture on the floor above. How well plumbing will withstand years of having grease and coffee grounds poured down the sink is another topic for consideration. Of course hardwood floors which have proved their ability to withstand generations of use and abuse get ready approval for a long-term mortgage.

4.—Liveability and functional plan is also of primary interest to the FHA property rater. In making his check the value of an architect's services in planning a home are immediately apparent. Size of the rooms and location for privacy and efficiency are to be considered. It's important to be able to get to the bath without going through the whole house . . . and for the kids to be able to juggle in the living room while you sleep through the noise undisturbed in an upstairs bedroom.

5.—Operating economy of mechanical equipment—and that includes appliances as well as heating, wiring and plumbing facilities—is a point to be considered. Installation of adequate, durable equipment that can be repaired will merit a favorable rating because of the probability of lower maintenance costs. Washing machines, stoves and refrigerators when installed virtually become a part of the house.

6.—Natural light and ventilation is of more significance than you might think. A house should have enough glass to admit the right amount of light, enough windows to permit proper ventilation of fresh air, and kitchen ventilating equipment to do away with unpleasant cooking odors. Overall ventilation will also be aided by including an attic ventilating fan in the house plan.

7.—Architectural attractiveness is worthy of careful thought. A freshly designed house—even if it satisfies some odd personal preference—is not a good investment because there are probably few others in the world for whom the house is suitable. In building a house it is always a good idea to keep in mind the possibility that the house may some day be offered for rent or for sale. Of course its appearance will determine to great extent the amount it will command on the market.

Writer Stresses Fundamentals In Home Building

By PAUL T. HAAGEN,
Noted Architect of Small Homes
Usually when a man plans a home he builds as large a house as his money will buy—and he wants all the appliances, equipment and conveniences built into that house. The total sum he has to invest seems rather adequate to him, and he feels it will cover all these things. Such is not always the case.

With labor and building material costs to consider, the money he has will go only so far and many times it is a difficult task to determine the things absolutely required as distinguished from what is wanted. Too often good construction is slighted for the gadgets that may be installed later.

The important thing to remember is that well-built masonry walls and footings, sturdy frame construction, sound and attractive doors, a first-class paint job, a good plumbing and heating installation and better electric wiring will pay large dividends over the years to come.

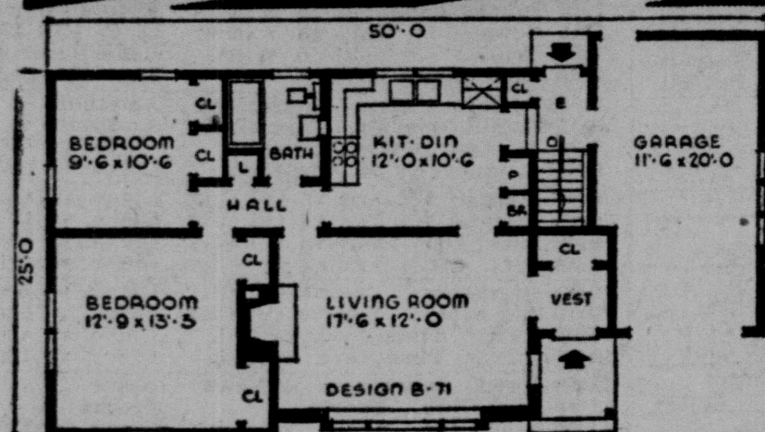

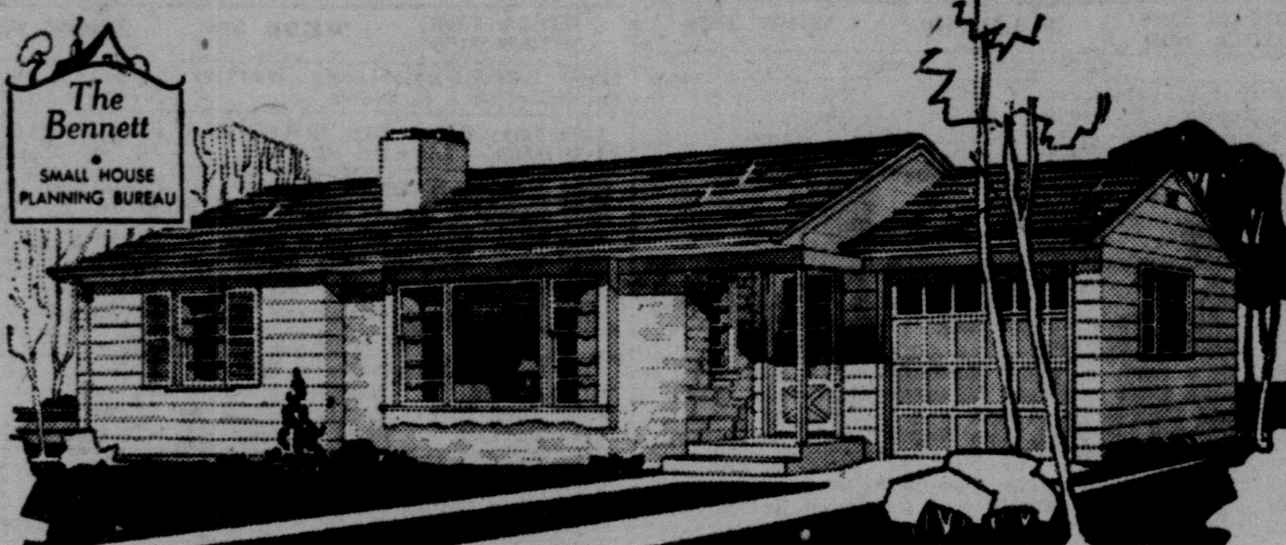

So let's start with the basic foundation, the footings that really support the house. Footings are the masonry base on which the house is built. They should be of poured concrete, wide enough to support adequately the weight of walls, floor and roof. The bottom of the footings should be level and rest on good solid soil or sand and below the frost line of the section in which the house is built. Foundation walls should be of any well built solid masonry of poured concrete, concrete blocks, or brick, well water-proofed on the exterior surface to hold back moisture from the walls may be used.

Basement floors are best of concrete about 4 inches thick, well drained and laid on a cinder bed. By all means have any supporting posts in the basement of steel, with the proper sized beams to support the first floor joists. Steel is economical in the construction and the life of your house will be longer, with the consequence of less plaster cracking and settling.

The true test of a well-built house is the fundamentals hidden within the walls and out of sight. There is always a temptation to economize here, but it is poor economy to put in inferior construction in these concealed places.

Far better to forego temporar-

ATTACHED GARAGE GIVES WIDER APPEARANCE EFFECT

THE BENNETT is planned to have wide overhanging eaves, a picture window and stone or brick facing on the living room walls. These features add interest to the front elevation. The balance of The Bennett has wide siding. Concrete or cinder blocks can be substituted for the exterior walls. The roof is covered with asphalt shingles. Addition of a garage to the side of this small house gives it a spacious appearance from the front.

The generous amount of closet space, small hall leading to all rooms and simplified plumbing installation with kitchen and bathroom adjoining, make the floor plan arrangement of The Bennett exceptional. There is a total of nine closets. A coat closet for each entrance; broom and pot and pan closets in the kitchen; a linen closet in the hall and twin closets in the bedrooms. High side windows in the bedroom offer additional wall space for furniture.

The main body of The Bennett is 38 feet by 24 feet. It has an area of 817 square feet, without the garage. There is a volume of 17,423 cubic feet, including the full basement.

For further information about THE BENNETT, write the Small House Planning Bureau, St. Cloud, Minn.

The governor, who secured a $3,000 loan on his car to finance his wedding and honeymoon, commented to newsmen at the Marriage License bureau, "There, I've saved a dollar. In Florida, licenses cost $3. That's another advantage California has over my state." The twice-married governor and Miss Manning will be married late Sunday. (International Soundphoto)

Interior Design Gets Emphasis In Modern Planning

If you are modern, you will start planning your home from the inside. That's the latest word from home builders.

There was a time when major attention was given to the external appearance of the house and the interior was made to conform. Today, the procedure is reversed.

As a result, interior finishes for walls and ceilings are being given more consideration. Paint and paper are still popular, but interior decorators report they have lots of competition.

Glass areas, for example, sometimes play a dominant role. Walls with fixed panel windows running from floor to ceiling, or a picture window with a large panel of double-pane glass are commonly used.

When light but not view is wanted, a glass brick wall in the hallway or corner of the living room will solve the problem. Base trim and other woodwork, decorative paint out, have been simplified. Woodwork often is combined with such built-in features as decorative shelves, cabinets and bookcases.

Traditional wall finishes, such as plaster, wood and manufactured panels, still rate high in the esteem of home planners. Among the favored manufactured board panels are decorative insulating boards, hardboards, plaster boards, plywood panels and predecorated hardboards.

Insulating tileboards, for instance, are frequently used to finish ceilings in solar houses and other houses of modern design. Predecorated hardboards are well suited for bathrooms and kitchens. Planks and panels of various types are used in libraries, game rooms and informal living rooms.

Insulating board is widely used for finishing rooms of all kinds, including those in attics and basements. It is one of the most versatile of the modern building materials. Besides building walls and ceilings, it decorates, insulates and quiets sound.

flooring, which is the most economical, is used most extensively. Also employed on a wide scale, however, are the plank, parquet and block types. Other species of hardwood used include maple, beech, birch and pecan.

Blend Floors With Decorative Plan

Home builders, according to reports in the trade, are becoming increasingly "floor conscious" these days. In selecting flooring they are placing more emphasis than ever on style adaptability.

Experts in interior decoration point out that the flooring is an integral part of the decorative motif. Because it is so conspicuous it has as much effect on the appearance of a room as the furnishings.

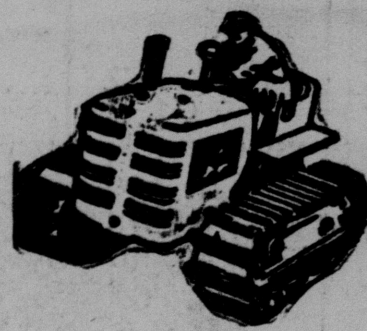

Since flooring is a basic structural part of a house, it should not require replacement. Once installed, it should last the life of the building. Meanwhile, in order to provide maximum serviceability, it should accommodate itself gracefully to changes through the years in style of furnishings, in color of drapes, curtains, walls and ceilings.

The growing demand for versatility in flooring probably accounts in large measure for the increased popularity of oak in recent years. The strip type of oak
